

Assignment - 12

1. Why does EBIT fall as the firm takes more debt?

⇒ EBIT can fall as a firm takes on more debt due to increased interest expense.

⇒ Higher debt leads to higher interest payments, which reduce net income, potentially limiting reinvestment or operational flexibility.

⇒ Additionally, excessive debt can heighten financial risk, impacting overall profitability.

Selamy